

Exeter. July 5. 1842.
2 or 3 k.

Dear Deborah,

You will be surprised at hearing from me again so soon. I left Boston this morning at 1/2 past 6. went to dinner & from there in the stage to Exeter. I had a nice fogging ride. found Miss quite well & happy; she had apparently enjoyed her visit very much, tho' she had had some trials, as her trunk which was sent after her went on to Keene. However it came back.
I found Mr & Mrs Ken and here; wd the pretty one. Also Mr Collins was here full of the highest spirits. He leaves for Concord this afternoon & Clement's Farmworth who will bring you this evening also of Boston. He offered to take a letter as he brings up at N. B. & as I know you would be glad to hear of any arrival I write. Mr F. is studying law I think in Tarrant. I cannot tell just exactly how long I shall stay here.
Henry is I think better for the warm weather.
If he continues just as he is I may stay longer.
I cannot tell how it will be. I should like to have you write to me here in about a week I shall certainly be here that long. Abby will bring you a package to day. Yrs ever M.W.
Mary has her hair cut short, & is keeping house very bravely.

I would ask Annie H. to say what but I should
may give her father & mother & some one.
